Dear Judge Poppiti:

I write concerning Fry's Electronics, Inc.'s ("Fry's") letter of earlier today requesting that Your Honor reconsider the recommendation made to Judge Farnan that the time a party has pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 53(g)(3) to respond to the Special Master's upcoming Report and Recommendation in connection with Class Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel Fry's be shortened to three days. Class Plaintiffs do not intend to respond to Fry's letter except to say that we believe it is important to keep the discovery process moving. We leave it to Your Honor's and the Court's discretion, however, to decide how that goal is best accomplished in this instance.

Also, during the May 1, 2007 hearing before Your Honor on the Motion to Compel Fry's, Class Plaintiffs indicated our intent to file a response by today, May 4, to an issue raised by Fry's regarding a transcript ruling referred to by Ms. Graham. Class Plaintiffs respectfully request that they be given a one-day extension, such that their response will be filed on Monday, May 7, 2007. I have conferred with Fry's counsel, and they do not oppose this extension.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Clayton Athey
(DE Bar # 4378)
